One parent or guardian may accompany a child on course.

A parent or guardian must be present at the start and the finish.

Support is available at the start/finish.

Every child who finishes receives a small keepsake.

LAST ONE STANDING
SATURDAY, JUNE 26

ROO BACKYARD ULTRA

One 4.17-mile loop every hour until only one runner remains. It's not about speed. It's about refusing to quit.

LOOP	INTERVAL	START	PRIZE
4.17 MILES	EVERY HOUR	SAT 10:00 AM	$10,000

THE FORMAT

The ROO Backyard Ultra is a Last One Standing race. There is no set distance and no finish line. Every hour, on the hour, a new lap begins and every remaining competitor runs the same 4.17-mile loop.

Finish the loop inside the hour and you remain eligible for the next one. Whatever time is left before the next start is yours to rest, eat, and reset. Fail to finish inside the hour and your race is over.

LAP RULES

> A new lap starts every hour, on the hour.
>
> Each lap must be completed within the hour to remain eligible.
>
> Be ready to start each successive lap at the official start.
>
> Same course as 2026, run in the same direction every lap.
>
> No pacers.
>
> Your assigned bib must remain visible throughout the race.

WINNING

> The winner must complete one more lap than every other competitor.
>
> If two runners start a lap and only one completes it, that runner wins.
>
> If a single remaining runner starts the next lap, they must complete it to win.
>
> If no competitor completes the final lap, there is no winner.
>
> The $10,000 prize goes exclusively to the official Last One Standing winner and is not split.

ENTIRELY SELF-SUPPORTED

Bring all of your own food, water, electrolytes, clothing, lighting, and other supplies. Race organizers may provide very limited supplemental resources, but none are guaranteed.

There is no mandatory equipment list. See Recommended Equipment.

04

COURSE RULES

STAYING ON COURSE

> Courses are marked with flags, directional signage, and reflective markers.
>
> Stay on the marked route.

> If you leave the route, return to the exact point where you left it before continuing. Failure to do so may result in disqualification.

PACERS, GEAR & BIBS

> No pacers in the 50K, 25K, 10K, or Backyard Ultra.
>
> The Little ROO Mile permits one accompanying parent or guardian.
>
> Trekking poles are permitted.
>
> Headphones are permitted as long as you can still hear staff and surrounding activity.
>
> Assigned bibs must remain visible throughout the 50K, 25K, 10K, and Backyard Ultra.

OUTSIDE ASSISTANCE

> Personal crew assistance is permitted only in designated crew areas.
>
> Unauthorized outside assistance may result in penalties or disqualification at the Race Director’s discretion.
>
> Emergency assistance is always permitted.

PRIVATE LAND & TRAFFIC

> Most trails are on private property. Stay within designated event areas.
>
> Some sections of the 50K, 25K, and 10K may be adjacent to vehicle traffic, and active road crossings are possible.
>
> Stay alert, follow signs and staff directions, and yield to vehicle traffic as appropriate.
>
> Yield to emergency vehicles, horses, livestock, and active ranch operations.

05

AIDS STATIONS & SELF-SUFFICIENCY

COME PREPARED. RACE SELF-SUFFICIENTLY.

Every competitor must bring sufficient hydration, nutrition, equipment, and weather protection for their race. Aid stations supplement personal preparation. They are not a substitute for it.

50K

- Fully staffed main aid station at the start/finish, passed during the race.
- One lightly staffed remote aid station (approximately 1–2 staff).
- Water, select electrolytes, and limited snacks and nutrition.
- Carry enough to get between stations.

25K

- Three loops: the main aid station at the start/finish is available after each loop.
- Remote aid station at approximately mile 2.35 of each loop.
- Remote aid: water, electrolytes, and limited nutrition. Main aid: water, electrolytes, and varied nutrition.
- Carry enough to get between stations.

10K

- One loop with a remote aid station at approximately mile 2.62, plus the main aid station at the start/finish.
- Remote aid: water, electrolytes, and limited nutrition. Main aid: water, electrolytes, and varied nutrition.
- Carry enough to get between stations.

LITTLE ROO MILE

- Start/finish support available.

BACKYARD ULTRA

- Entirely self-supported.
- Very limited supplemental resources may be available, but none are guaranteed.

DROP BAGS — 50K & 25K ONLY

Permitted at the main start/finish aid station only. No remote aid station drop bags.

Drop your bag during your race's check-in window.

Label it with your name, bib number, and race distance.

Your bag is accessible each time you pass through the main aid station.

Collect your bag by 4:00 PM Friday whenever possible.

Remaining bags are held at the main aid station for collection before you leave the venue.

ROO Race Series is not responsible for bags left behind.

06

CUTOFFS, WITHDRAWALS & COURSE SWEEP

FRIDAY TRAIL RACES

The 50K, 25K, and 10K share a firm 4:00 PM finish cutoff on Friday.

There are no intermediate aid station cutoffs for the 50K or 25K.

Staff begin a course sweep at 4:00 PM.

Runners still on course at the cutoff are recorded as DNF and must walk out, following sweep staff instructions.

If a runner is injured or unable to walk safely, emergency personnel will coordinate appropriate assistance.

The Little ROO Mile cutoff is 1:00 PM.

WITHDRAWING

If you withdraw, notify an official race staff member or aid station volunteer before leaving the venue.

Backyard Ultra runners who are eliminated or withdraw must report their status to race officials before departing.

Never leave without being accounted for.

07

BACKYARD ULTRA CREW CORRAL & SETUP

BACKYARD ULTRA ONLY

Every Friday and Saturday Crew Corral setup instruction in this section applies exclusively to Backyard Ultra competitors and their crews. The 50K, 25K, 10K, and Little ROO Mile do not use the Backyard Ultra Crew Corral setup procedures.

The Crew Corral is home base for every Backyard Ultra competitor and crew. Every competitor returns here between laps, and it remains operational throughout the Backyard Ultra, including overnight as the competition continues.

ASSIGNED SPACES

Spaces are preassigned and numbered by race organizers after registration closes.

Spaces are not first come, first served.

Staff will direct you to your assigned space. Physical maps are provided at check-in.

TRAVELING TOGETHER?

Competitors traveling together may request neighboring spaces by email before registration closes. Neighboring assignments are not guaranteed. Email support@rooraceseries.com.

FRIDAY SETUP

BACKYARD ULTRA · JUNE 25

01 Check in (5:30–6:15 PM).

02 Attend the mandatory comprehensive briefing (6:30 PM, ranch house lawn).

03 After the briefing, once companion race traffic has cleared, controlled unloading opens near the Crew Corral (approximately 7:00 PM).

04 Unload promptly, then move your vehicle to designated parking.

05 Follow staff directions to your assigned space and complete setup before 9:00 PM.

06 Leave the property for overnight accommodations. No overnight camping Friday night.

SATURDAY SETUP

BACKYARD ULTRA · JUNE 26

01 Limited arrival and check-in, 7:00–8:00 AM only.

02 Use designated parking where available. If parking is unavailable, a controlled short-duration drop-off may be permitted.

03 Staff will direct you to your assigned space. Gear wagons are recommended.

04 All setup must be complete by 9:00 AM.

05 Attend the mandatory final briefing (9:00–9:15 AM, Crew Corral). Required for all competitors, including Friday attendees.

06 The Backyard Ultra begins at 10:00 AM.

CORRAL RULES

No early staging, setup, or equipment drop-offs before the Friday briefing.

No vehicles inside the Crew Corral, and no extended vehicle staging.

Keep emergency access lanes and walkways clear at all times.

DURING THE RACE

Tents, chairs, coolers, and canopies may remain in the Crew Corral overnight.

Crews and spectators may come and go, including overnight, subject to traffic management.

Enter and exit without obstructing competitors, start areas, or emergency access.

Staff may temporarily restrict access for safety.

PACKING UP

Eliminated runners are welcome to remain and support others for a reasonable period.

When you are ready to pack up, begin breakdown just after the start of a new lap to minimize disruption.

Remove all of your belongings before departing.

08

PARKING & VENUE INFORMATION

THE VENUE

DUTCHMAN CREEK EVENTS PONDEROSA

57 Ponderosa Ranch Rd
Clancy, MT 59634

PARKING

FRIDAY TRAIL RACES

- Two designated parking lots serve runners, crews, and spectators. The first lot fills before the second opens.
- One lot is approximately a quarter mile from the main start/finish.
- Parking is first come, first served.
- No driving into active runner areas. Walk or carry your equipment from parking.

BACKYARD ULTRA

- Backyard unloading is separate from Friday race parking. See the Backyard Ultra Crew Corral & Setup section.
- Friday: controlled unloading near the Crew Corral after the evening briefing, then move to designated parking.
- Saturday: designated parking where available, or a controlled short-duration drop-off if parking is unavailable.
- No vehicles inside the Crew Corral.

FACILITIES

Portable toilets and handwashing stations are available throughout the weekend, including overnight.

There is no general-purpose running water and no showers.

Drinking water at designated companion race aid stations is separate from general facility water access.

Select food vendors may be present. Bring your own food, beverages, coolers, and chairs.

EVENT POLICIES

No pets anywhere on event grounds.

Spectators are welcome in designated spectator areas.

ROO takes place on a private ranch. Respect the property and stay within designated event areas.

Follow all event staff instructions.

Leave No Trace. Remove your trash.

Do not block emergency routes, access lanes, or walkways.

No overnight camping Friday night.

Overnight Crew Corral use is permitted Saturday night while the Backyard Ultra continues.

09

SAFETY & EMERGENCY PROCEDURES

ROO takes place on private Montana ranchland, and conditions can change quickly. Every participant is responsible for preparing for the terrain, the weather, and their own limits.

IN AN EMERGENCY

Emergency personnel will be on site throughout race weekend.

For a life-threatening emergency, call 911 immediately, then notify race staff when it is safe to do so.

For any other injury or illness, notify the nearest race staff member or aid station volunteer.

If you come across a runner in distress, stay with them if it is safe to do so and alert the next staff member or runner you see.

MONTANA WEATHER

Expect variable conditions across race weekend: daytime heat, cold nighttime temperatures, wind, sudden thunderstorms, and possible wildfire smoke. Plan clothing and layers for the full range.

LIGHTNING

Thunderstorms can build quickly in the mountains. Follow all staff instructions during lightning activity, including any hold or suspension of racing.

TERRAIN

Trails include uneven surfaces and loose rocks, and can become slippery when wet. Watch your footing, especially when fatigued or running in the dark.

WILDLIFE & LIVESTOCK

You are running through working Montana ranch country. Stay aware of your surroundings, give wildlife space, and yield to horses and livestock.

HYDRATION & NUTRITION

Plan your hydration, electrolytes, and calories for your distance and the conditions. Aid stations supplement your preparation; they do not replace it.

PERSONAL RESPONSIBILITY

Know your limits and your health. Stop and seek help if something is wrong. Look out for fellow runners on course.

MEDICAL DECISIONS

On-site emergency personnel may immediately stop a competitor from continuing when it is medically unsafe. Competitors must comply.

The Race Director retains authority over eligibility, subject to medical safety determinations.

RACE DIRECTOR AUTHORITY

The Race Director has final authority to delay, suspend, modify, or cancel an event for weather, trail conditions, wildfire smoke, safety, or operational reasons.

The Race Director may modify courses, distances, and race operations.

All staff instructions must be followed.

CONDUCT & DISPUTES

Alcohol and recreational drug use are prohibited while actively competing. Impaired competitors may be removed.

Harassment, threats, deliberate interference, property damage, and refusal to follow instructions are prohibited.

The Race Director may disqualify runners or remove crew and spectators for misconduct.

Disputes about results, lap counts, placements, or rule enforcement go directly to the Race Director. The Race Director's decisions are final.

10
